

FERNANDO TAVARES

Internship or Junior Front-End / FullStack

Graduated in Nursing Technology, I have always worked in the areas of emergency, urgent care, and intensive care, including emergency rooms, pediatric emergencies, Covid ICU, and ambulance services. However, I have always been passionate about programming, and now is the time to start my career transition. I have started studying ADS (Analysis and Systems Development) at Estácio University, along with a FullStack Dev course at DevMedia.
